The Defiance 1949

As did the courageous Forty-Niners of one hundred years ago set out on their long trek across our country in search of hoped-for gold, so we, the students of Defiance High School, set out on a journey with hope of preparing ourselves to make the most of life's golden opportunities.

Theirs is a tale of tremendous achievement, drama, and action; of courage and endurance. Ours is a story of advancement and accomplishment no less glamorous.

This book is focused on the progress of one year.

Men of distinction . . .

Are you seeing double? . . .

That Ipana smile . . .

pre-school bull session . . .

Cheesecake . . .

Shame on you tomboys . . .

Beauty by the sea . . .

Grand Canyon . . .

LOOKING AHEAD . . .

The scene which you will witness is a conversation between two extremes—heaven and . . . er . . . ah . . . The persons involved are Reverend Frederick Behringer, pastor, who represents heaven. Then there is Bill Sterling, ex-cardshark, who well, he is in the hole, shall we say.

Bill: Say, Fred, can you hear me?

Fred: Can't miss you, you little devil you.

Bill: Ahh don't rub it in, I know when things are hottest now.

Fred: Say, Bill, I can see from where I stand a lot of people. What say we, or rather I look in on a few and narrate to you the happenings?

Bill: Oh goody ,lets.

Fred: Now take Karen Abele. She has prospered in the few years out of school and now is a rich woman living in Ireland.

Bill: Ireland?

Fred: Sure, Rhode Ireland.

Bill: Keep looking for more while I put a couple souls on the fire. It's dying down to 28,000°C.

Fred: Well, well, there is Herb Fessel graduating from Penn State with honors.

Bill: Well, what's so astonishing about that? So did I.

Fred: Now, Bill, we all know that was the State Penn! ! ! ! !

Bill: Curses, foiled again! !

Fred: Say there is Margaret Hasch. She's now starring in a day-time serial, "Margaret's Other Husband."

Bill: Keep talking Fred; here comes some more recruits for my Royal Army of Heat.

Fred: There is Glenn Bayliss in a T.V. station. I guess he is another Arthur Godfrey to the world. He sponsors Doris Belden's potato chips.

Bill: Wow! Listen to that static, Fred. I can even hear it down here.

Fred: I can tell by not looking that that is Bill Fauth campaigning against James Hartoon for President of The United States.

Bill: Say, Fred, can you see Gene "Curline" Starret?

Fred: Can I see him? He and Pat Baum have become partners in two ways—marriage and in the plumbing business. While on the subject of plumbing, there is Jim "Hose Nose" Wahl and his dancing partner, Lee Weisenburger. They do the dance of the age.

Bill: Golly—when do you think that age will return?

Fred: They are starred in Yvonne Partee's musical "A Miracle on Clinton Street."

Bill: Say, Fred, how is Joan Hiatt doing for herself?

Fred: She . . . oh there she is. She directs her world-famed "All Boy Chorus" featuring Pat Sargeant and his Magic Tuba.

Bill: Janice and Pauline Skiver have added another quiz show to the air haven't they?

Fred: How did you know that Bill?

Bill: Ground waves! ! !

Fred: Did you hear the show where they asked Bill Maass and Marilyn Hahn how many leaves were on the oldest tree in the world? But before they could answer Ilene Mack called in and gave the correct answer. She said she and Jim Krutsch, (ace mortition "he buries anything") have been counting the leaves and she was right.

Bill: I'll bet they were "up in the air" about it.

Fred: Not when they found the prize to be tooth picks made by Rosemary Otto, yep 200,000,000 boxes of them.

Bill: Golly, that would kindle a swell fire.

Fred: Quit talking shop. Say look there Bill, it's Roger Shock and his wife er . . . a . . . oh, yes Joyce Roehrig. They are interested in their little electrical equipment shop. They have another baby boy—wonder what they'll call him?

Bill: Probably "Ever-ready," Fred.

Fred: Esther Nelson is in the dog house now that her vaudeville dog act has been found out—The dog was really Bill Weber.

Bill: Pass the after-shave lotion, please.

Fred: Here in New Mexico is a good one—Ruth Ann Shaeffer and Joan Weaver have opened a restaurant under private eye Dick Zeschke's office.

Bill: Gad, is he over the soup . . . Say how is Bill Wilhelm coming with the shipyards?

Fred: Swell, he has Roger Jones and let's see . . . oh yes, Lavon Mack and Jim Keller working for him. Rog and Lavon hold the rivet and Jim smashes it with a 500 pound hammer.

Bill: Reed Highland has opened a pet shop in Bryan hasn't he, Fred?

Fred: You know it, he specializes in kangaroos too.

Bill: Wow, I'll bet prices are bouncing there!

Fred: Speaking of "bouncing" there is Maryann Beatty owner of all the prize fighters in the States. She has Georgous Dick Naveau and The Vandemark Angel—Bud that is.

Bill: Say, Fred, she even ownes Bad Man Gruver doesn't she?

Fred: You know it. Also the terror of the women "Joan of Ache"—Joanne Ward. And did you know that "Slick" Speiser is owner of the largest and most beautiful pool hall in the world.

Bill: Boy, I'll bet things are "hot" for Mayor of New York, Don Fischer.

Fred: Did you know he married Joan Enos?

Bill: No comment.

Fred: There is Keith "Clud" Clymer. He is the manufacturer of Vitamin D pills.
Bill: Yea, his slogan is, "If you can't get it from the sun try a Clymer."
Fred: There on the tracks at Yale is Shirley "Babe" Bittinger—Olympic star-to-be in the 880 high hurdles.
Bill: Joe Crawford, her manager and Wanda Becker, her trainer always did say she had nothing to fear from Dorothy Bauer or Dolores Nierman for the Olympics.
Fred: Well, well, there is Mary Ann Demland. She and Charlene Derge, Virginia English, Vera Doyle, and Catherine Dohoney bought a fishing ship and a cannery on the coast of Maine.
Bill: But they can't fish and you can't hire fishermen for love nor money since the strike is on.
Fred: Well, it's easily done when Charlene plays. The men gather around to listen and the other girls go into action and zip, they're shanghaied.
Bill: I slept in a cannery over night once.
Fred: Yea, I know, the Police Station in Columbus.
Bill: Well I have to put some souls on to fry—did you see my new GE range? It really is handy for this sort of thing.
Fred: Ha! There is Ellen Kohart. She is head nurse in the Toledo hospital for the mental cases and right now she is having trouble with some of the inmates. They want to see Napoleon.
Bill: Making it pretty hot for Ellen, huh?
Fred: Quit talking shop and you better turn those souls over—they look done to me.
Bill: Thanks. Say, Fred, how is "Wrink" Mast doing for himself?
Fred: He is married and has a greenhouse in Denver, Colorado. He also has 200 little ones all over the United States.
Bill: Ain't that kinda cruel to the children?
Fred: Children! Heavens no. I meant branch greenhouses.
Bill: I wonder what ever happened to Lois Palm?
Fred: She is returning from a Metropolitan opera tour next month.
Bill: Well, she always had the vocal equipment for it.
Fred: Yea . . . but her stand-in, Harriett Rout may replace her. She is as near the Great Lois in voice culture as they could find.
Bill: Where did they look? I wonder . . . Say, what s this about Bud Wrigley, Bill Gray, Jim Taylor, and Bob Newman?
Fred: Well, Bill, they are called the "Wrigley Wranglers" featured in every one of "Wild Bob Conroy's" pictures.
Bill: Fred, I hear that United States minister to China, Jim Bridenbaugh, is having trouble with Generalissimo Chiang Shy Loper (Jim to you). Bridenbaugh told the UN Saturday that Loper was not shredding the rice evenly.
Fred: Say, Bill, how did you find that out?
Bill: Under ground—"really underground."
Fred: Well, Kathlean Wellman owns her own veterinary office now.
Bill: Yea, I know most of her patients are my next door neighbors.
Fred: Don Warnimont's star basketball team is going to the Rose Bowl and . . .
Bill: Wait a minute. They don't play basketball at the Rose Bowl.
Fred: Boy, is Don going to be surprised! And so is his first team—Denise Fitzenrider, Norma Graf, Alberta Spangler, Carolyn and Marilyn Schira.
Fred: Don't stop now, Fred, tell me more. I'm getting hot under the collar from the suspense.
Fred: Well, let's see. Oh yes, the other day Ambassador to Iceland Richard Hoover and wife-to-be Gloria Hammons were received by the butler, Ray Osborn, at the estate of Dave Leaders. He was throwing a big shindig in honor of 24 star General Robert Boff. The Scotts—Leah and Lela—the most sought after tight-wire artists in the business were the featured attraction.
Bill: Say, Fred, weren't they with "The Betty Hartman—James Moorehead All Star Circus" in Canada?
Fred: They were but now they are with Forrest Frisinger's aquatorium, but their manager, Beverly Weber, is looking toward Hollywood. This next bit of chatter is just your type. Edith Osborn, Marilyn Carroll, Junella Hesselschwardt, and Norma Link have turned to under-world deeds with their leader Marilyn "Dillinger" Meyer.
Bill: What do you know about that!! Fred ,did you know that Barbara Mitchell and Barbara Kammeyer are owners of the largest window washing business in New York? A nice clean business.
Fred: Peggy Gutman and Ardith Harmon have opened a furniture store and Jim Weisenberger was ordered to break in all davenports and comfortable chairs free of charge.
Bill: Well, Fred, it's getting pretty late and I have to get to bed early so I can be in shape for my annual vacation which I always spend in Defiance, Ohio. My assistants, John Wirick, Wayne Shaffer, Tyke Weber, Bill Fidler, and Pete Morris will be in charge of my headquarters until I return.

LAST WILL AND

We, the class of 1949 of Defiance High School in the County of Defiance and the State of Ohio, being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of frail and transitory life and hoping to graduate from said high school sooner or later do, therefore, make, ordain, publish, and declare this to be our first and last Will and Testament.

I, Karen Abele, will my period for organ practice to Marjorie Rout. (May she reap more benefits than I did.)

I, Dorothy Bauer, will my job of Booster treasurer to anyone with a large supply of aspirins.

I, Pat Baum, will my faithfulness to one fellow to Bonell Marihugh.

I, Glenn Bayliss, do will and bequeath my athletic ability to Jerry Behringer.

I, Wanda Backer, will my deadpan expression to Dick Diemer.

I, Fred Behringer, will my Hollywood profile to Pork Chop Fry.

I, June Belden, will my golden voice to my most promising pupil, Dinah Shore.

I, Shirley Bittinger, will my job as waitress to any girl interested in the college boys.

I, Robert Boff, will my grocery delivery route to Finley Vaughn whose heart is closer to Nolan's than my heart is.

I, Jim Bridenbaugh, will my job as quarterback to Jack Lehman.

I, Marilyn Carroll, will my stubborness back to the mules.

I, Clud Clymer, will my first three years of high school which were a complete loss to Jim Derrow who isn't doing so bad himself.

I, Bob Conroy, will my nickname "Ears" back to the elephant.

I, Joan Doan, will my seat in Social Problems to an unlucky Junior who can understand the stuff!!!

We, Bill Gray, Ruth Ann Shaeffer, Joanne Ward, Herb Fessel, and Bill Weber, will our places in the band to anyone who already has flat feet.

I, Maryann Demland, will my eloquent silence to Nora Lee Bayliss.

I, Catherine Dohoney, will my firey disposition to any person with the red hair to match it.

I, Ned Duerk, will the dense fog which completely surrounds me to the weather man; may he scatter it elsewhere—there's enough in Defiance already.

I, Don Fischer, will my pipe—Of course not; I haven't enough money to buy another.

I, Virginia English, will my last six years of loyalty at Defiance High School to whom it may concern.

I, Joanne Enos, will all my pep, energy, and bubbling vitality to Dick Squire.

I, Bill Fauth, will and bequeath a ride in my fliver to anyone who has plenty of insurance.

I, Bill Fidler, will my one and only name to anyone who can play a cigar box.

I, Denise Fitzenrider, will my Dick to anyone who wants to try and get him.

I, Forest Frisinger, will my desire to call teachers by their first names to any Junior not interested in making the honor roll.

I, Norma Graf, will my quiet unassuming manner to too many people to list here.

I, Jim Gruver, will my nickname "Tuffy" to Allan Schutt.

I, Peggy Gutman, will my good nature to anyone who could use it.

I, Marilyn Hahn, will my seat in Bookkeeping back to Mr. Thompson.

I, Gloria Hammons, will my place on the honor roll each six weeks to Dolores Cooper.

I, Ardith Harmon, will my studious attitude to Fred Miller.

I, Betty Hartman, will my quietness to Jennie Pohlmann who can certainly use it.

I, Jim Hartoon, will my long legs to Jack Hohenberger.

I, Margaret Hasch, will my long list of fellows to no one.

I, Elinor Hershey, will my ability to think up absence excuses to Miss Kehnast.

I, Joan Hiatt, do will and bequeath my hamburger diet to Sally Skees.

I, Alberta Spangler, will my reserved manner to Ronnie Schutt.

I, Dave Speiser, will my long legs back to the flamingo; may he make as much good use of them as I have.

I, Gene Starrett, will my wavy hair to any girl who gets in too late at night to put her hair up.

I, Bill Sterling, will my ability to ad lib to Husk Ryan.

I, Jim Taylor, will my nickname "Tailbone" back to the chickens.

I, Clarence Vandemark, will my intentional fortitude in football to Willie Froelich.

I, Jim Wahl, will my knowledge of science to Mr. Hultz for future use.

I, Don Warnimont, will my way with the women to Gerry Reid, who has collected quite a harem already.

We, Joan Weaver and Beverly Weber, will our love for North Creek to anyone who doesn't care for Defiance boys.

I, John (Tyke) Weber, will the country air to no one; even city people like it at times.

I, Jim Weisenburger, will my ability to leave the weaker sex alone to Dick Smith.

I, Lee Weisenburger, will my cheerleader's uniform to anyone who doesn't mind stiff aching joints.

I, Kathlean Wellman, will my gay, friendly personality to Madeline Hasch.

I, Bill Wilhelm, will my faithful alarm clock, which never goes off in the morning to the junk yard.

I, John Wirick, will my ticket selling ability for the class of '49 to a next year's Senior.

I, Bud Wrigley, will my name to the famous building in Chicago. Let's hope it doesn't "gum" up the river.

I, Richard (Handsome Dick) Zeschke, will my special course, "How To Make Love In Ten Easy Lessons" to Keith Hubbard.

COLLEGE CLUB

Where to go after school is out? Should I head west to the land of the 49'ers? How about the Army?

For all of us who were wondering about these questions at the beginning of the school year, the College Club helped clear some of these issues.

Under the direction of Jim Loper, president; Bob Newman, vice-president; Maryann Beatty, secretary; and Lois Palm, treasurer; the club had a successful year.

The annual Christmas alumnae party was enjoyed by all.

Miss Kehnast is club advisor.

FUTURE RETAILERS of AMERICA

The F.R.O., composed of members of the distributive education classes, is another active group in Defiance High School. They are not only members of a state organization, but are also members of a national body. This organization was active in many social functions throughout the year.

The officers this year included: Kathlean Wellman, president; Elinor Hershey, vice-president; Betty Hartman, secretary; and Don Warnimont, treasurer.

O. J. Heusi is club advisor.

COMMERCE CLUB

The Commerce Club consists of students interested in business as a profession. The members learn the why and wherefore of an office profession and what business men expect of their employees.

This year the club was under the leadership of Dorothy Bauer, president; Carolyn Hendricks, vice-president; Carol McFarland, secretary; and Norma Link, treasurer. With Miss Geneva Hankish as advisor, the group had many pleasant and profitable experiences by visiting the General Motors plant and having guest speakers.

On the social side the members had a Christmas Party in the Community Room.

VISUAL EDUCATION ASSISTANTS

Practically every morning and afternoon a movie is being shown in Room 30 or elsewhere in the building, and operating those projectors is a member of the visual education department.

Under the supervision of Mr. Senger this group shows all classroom movies and makes necessary repairs on equipment.

STUDENT COUNCIL

With the help of the Student Council the members of the faculty can better understand the student's attitude toward democratic governing of the school activities. This co-operation between the faculty and student representatives results in a better and smoother running school system.

Officers this year included: Nora Lee Bayliss, treasurer; Sue Seyboldt, secretary; Jim Taylor, president; and Joanne Enos, vice-president. Mr. Henkle is advisor of the group.

MEMBERS:

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Members of the National Honor Society are selected on the basis of their leadership, citizenship, scholarship, and character. The officers this year were: Charlene Derge, president; Walter Mast, vice-president; Ellen Kohart, secretary; and Jim Wahl, treasurer. Mr. Blue is advisor of the group.

"DON'T TAKE MY PENNY"

These words won't be forgotten for a long time for the juniors this year put on a play that will rival the best.

The story concerns the maid of the Pringle household who has been planted there to be "discovered" by a Hollywood producer. Penny's friends find out about the producer, and when they do, they all are set out to impress the producer and get the part. But everyone, including the planted star is surprised when Penny's sister gets the lead.

Mrs. Jane Bohlmann directed the sparkling performance.

Spring itself is an excuse for mild madness but when it comes to the fabulous Ford household anything can happen—and it does. Mr. Ford decided to enjoy his first vacation in years at home and life for father would be more peaceful in a boiler factory. Mrs. Ford decided she is going to have her annual cause, this time it is enlightening the world by becoming a radio commentator. Bianca Ford comes home for her spring vacation with a new fiance, Sutton Colby, Jr., son of the prominent Senator, and his sister who sits on the floor and discusses her previous incarnation. They choose to arrive via airplane crash in the Ford backyard. The boy next door who loves Bianca decides to make her jealous by pretending he is smitten with floor sitting Phyliss and, much to his horror Phyllis really falls for him. Young Judy Ford gets arrested as a bank robber just as Senator Colby arrives and all the occupants of the house face jail sentences. Into all this comes Mrs. Ford's idol, Lavinia Dragon, the famous analyst who in addition to being near-sighted is madder than any of the Fords. In fact the new maid who was sent by the agency to work for a man recently released from an insane asylum refuses to believe she has wandered into the wrong house.

TOP LEFT: Walt Mast, Margaret Hasch, Marilyn Carroll, Jim Bridenbaugh, Lee Weisenburger, Bill Sterling, and Glenn Bayliss look on in astonishment as "Detective" Bill Wilhelm pulls Harriett Rout into the room.
TOP RIGHT: Oh, how I hate to get up in the morning!
BOTTOM LEFT: Joan Hiatt chasses "Romeo" Jim Taylor through the living room as Ma and Pa Ford and "The Profile" look on.

THE BEST IS YET TO COME

"The Best Is Yet To Come," a monthly stage review, was sponsored by the Class of '49.

Each month a big name band along with 10 outstanding acts entertained in the Community Auditorium.

Because of sell-out performances, the Seniors were given a banquet February 10 by Kroger Babb, producer.

Some of the outstanding performers appearing in the production included the Skitch Henderson orchestra, Charlie Fisk and his band, Glenn Vernon and Eddie Ryan of Hollywood fame, Nick Stuart and his Hollywood aggregation, and the famous Buddy Marion troupe.

Profits from "The Best Is Yet To Come" enabled the Seniors to take their class trip to Washington, D. C.

STRIKE UP THE BAND . . .

This year the D.H.S. band under the direction of Mr. Wilson, provided entertainment for the faculty, student body, and the public by performing between halves of football games, by appearing in parades, and by participating in other numerous activities. A "pep" band composed of regular band members added color to many of the basketball games.

Band members include:

N. W. O. L. FOOTBALL CHAMPS

A charging line and hard-running backs resulted in a fine season for the Defiance High School gridders this year.

The season was very much hampered by a polio epidemic which brought the original nine game schedule down to seven games. Despite this, however, Defiance again became Northwest Ohio League champs.

Nineteen letterman made up the bulk of the playing team, fourteen of whom were seniors.

The games as a whole were all hard fought, Defiance coming from behind to win in all contests but the Fostoria and Lima South games, making the season's record 5 wins and 2 losses. Napoleon was played in the last tussle of the season with the league title at stake. The Bulldogs, in the pouring rain on a water soaked field, drove through to victory.

For football scoreboard, see page 90.

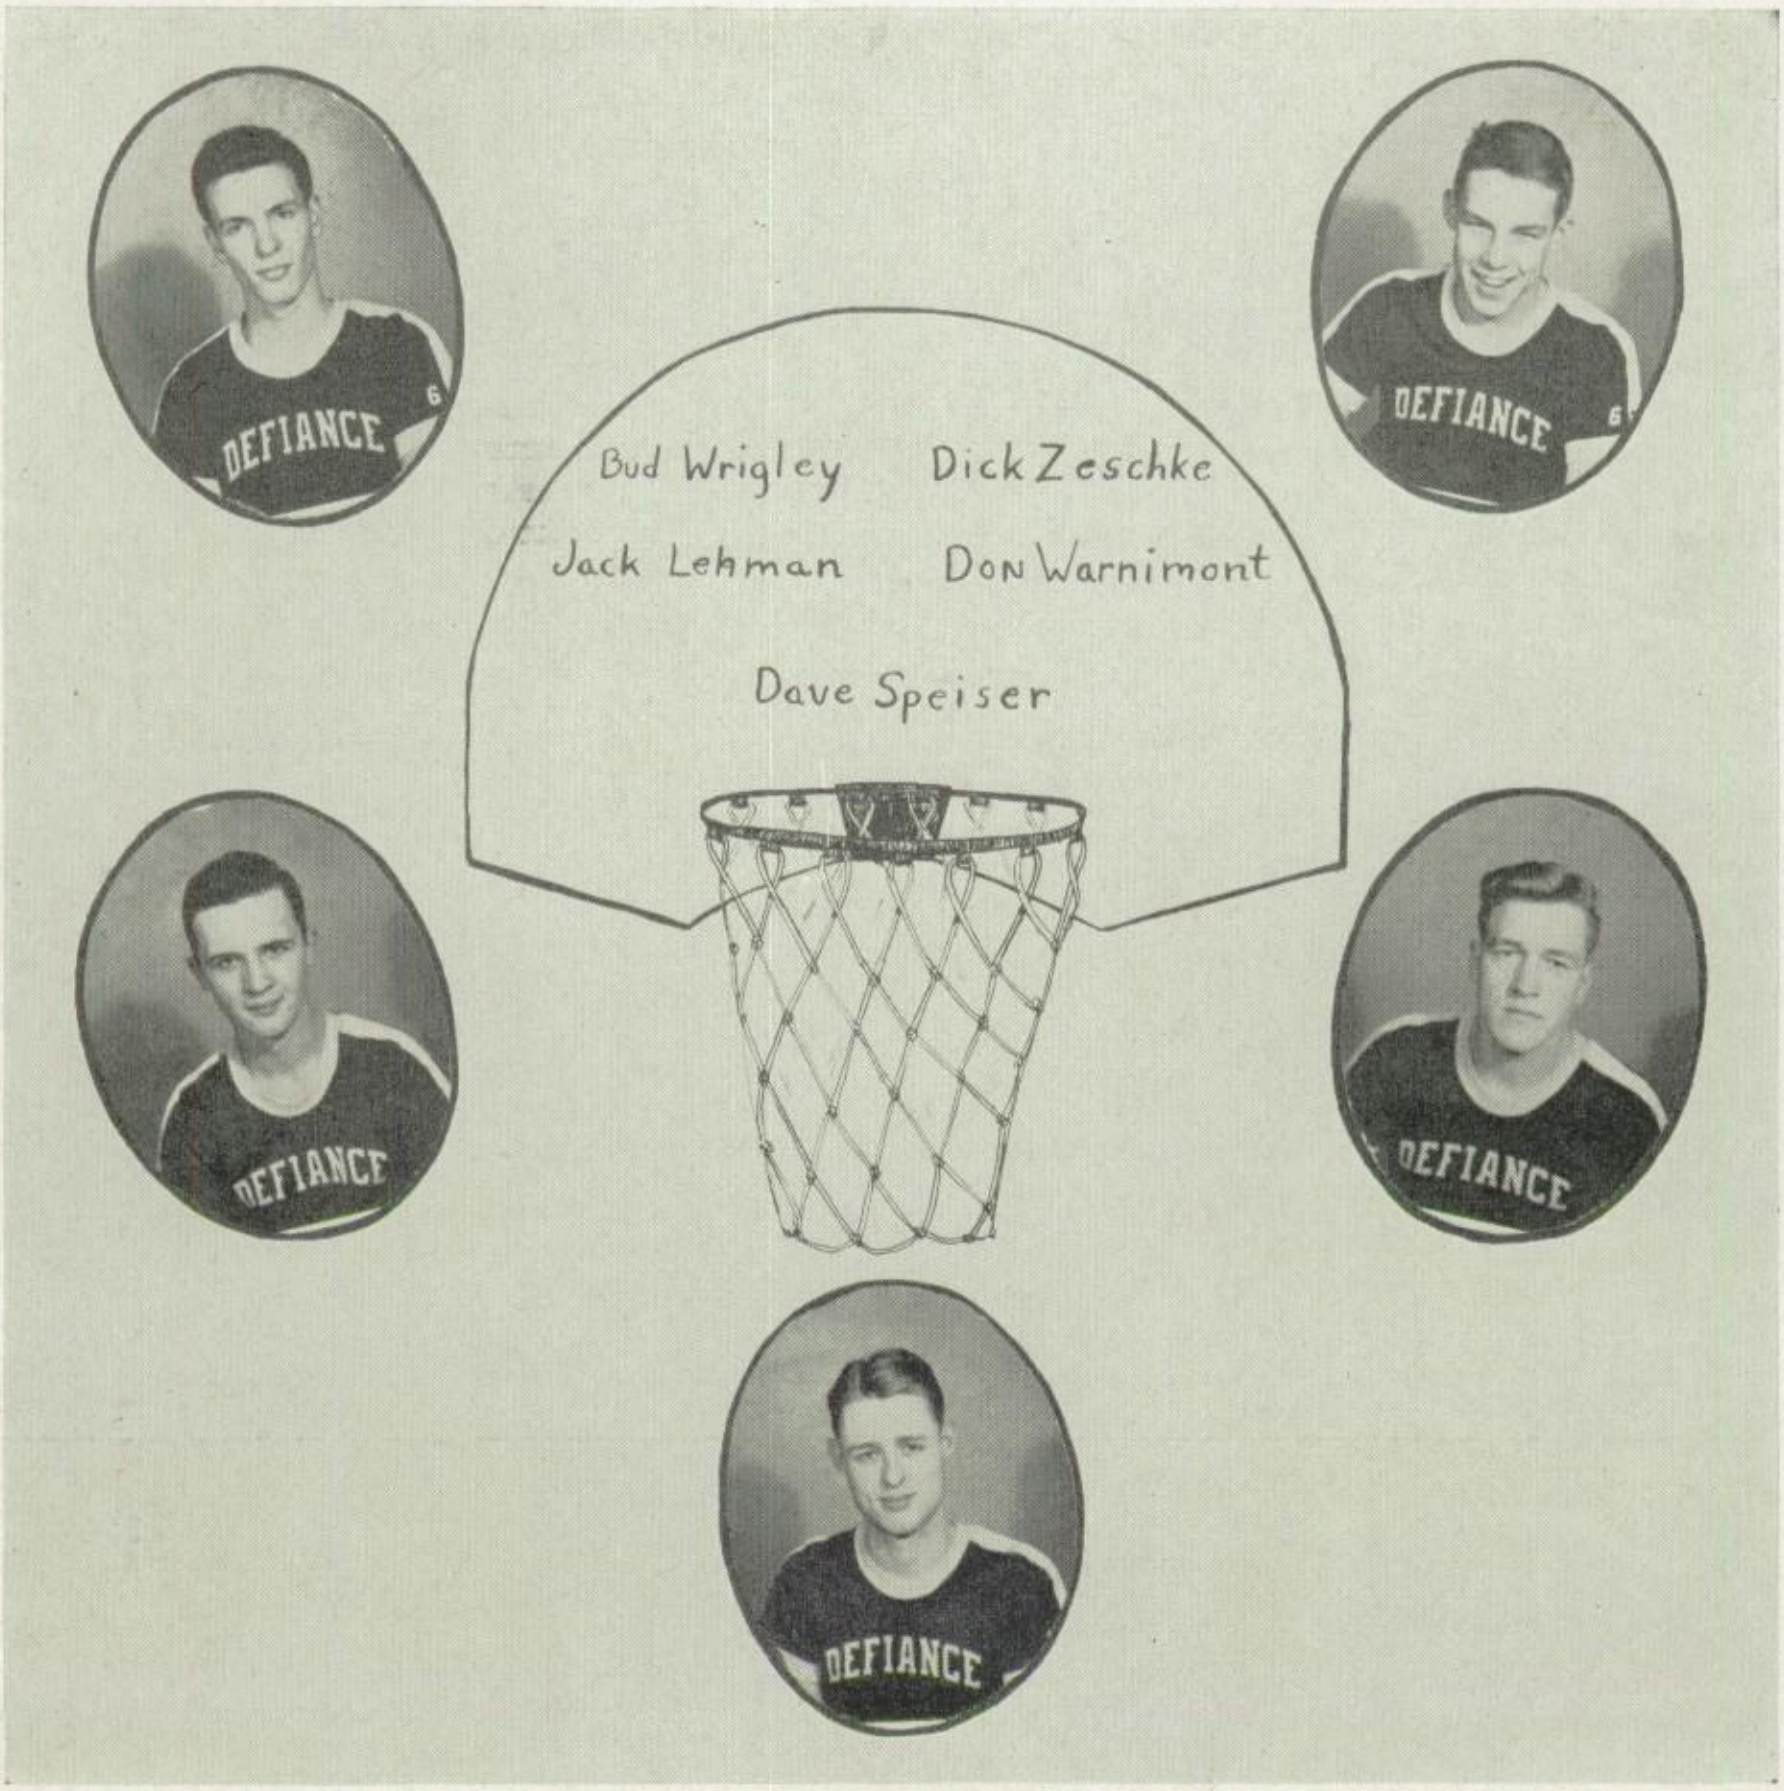
A BASKETBALL OF GOLD — Their Aim



VARSITY

The 1948-49 Defiance High Bulldogs rolled along in good fashion near tournament time after getting off to a slow start. Under Coach Thorval Mattax the Bulldogs became co-champs of the NWOL with Liberty Center, won the Sectional Tournament in Defiance, and advanced to the District Meet at Findlay.

The Bulldogs first team was sparked by Seniors: Bud Wrigley, the Leagues' leading scorer; Dave Speiser, Dick Zeschke, and Don Warnimont; Juniors: Bernie Boff and Dick Harris; and Sophomores: Jack Lehman and Ron Williams.

RESERVES

The D.H.S. Bullpups, guided by Coach Mattax, again won the League championship easily. The "Pups" showed much promise for the Varsity in years to come.

Outstanding on the Reserve squad were Jerry Behringer, Charlie Barber, Dick Squire, Jim Hall, and Paul Warnimont.

GOLDEN FLEET FEET

The Defiance High School track team added another page of history in the D.H.S. record books by winning the Northwestern Ohio League meet in 1948.

Although they had a little tough luck in the regular season, they proved a good match for the rest of the league tracksters.

In the first meet between Napoleon, Montpelier, and Defiance, Napoleon tracksters came out on top with 74 points. Defiance finished second with 48 2/3 points and Montpelier third with 27 1/3 points.

Defiance then traveled to Liberty Center to sweep an 86 to 32 victory.

In the third track meet at Bryan, once again Defiance failed to overcome Napoleon. Final results: Napoleon, 65; Bryan, 43½, Defiance, 40½. Dick Smith set a 16.6 sec. school record in the 120 yard low hurdles at this meet.

In the final meet before the league meet Lima Central came out on top with a 74 to 40 win.

The supreme test came when Defiance journeyed to Napoleon for the league meet. The meet ended with Defiance on top with 61 points, Napoleon 43½ points, Bryan, 40 points, Wauseon, 31 points and Liberty 9½ points.

Not only did we win the meet, but speedster Ray Osborn set a new 10 second league record in the 100 yard dash.

ROW 3: Jan Patten, Wayne Snyder, Dave Pelok, Jim Allen, Bill Stambaugh, Doug Parker.

The junior high gridders had the misfortune to have their entire schedule cancelled because of fear of polio. However, intra-squad tilts were played off.

The Freshman basketball team was coached by Mr. Riggle. They completed a rugged season winning 7 games and losing 6. The Frosh won an overtime game from both Bryan and Continental and lost a double overtime to Continental. In the Frosh league tournament these boys were defeated by Bryan. Jack Hale was elected honorary captain at the close of the season.

The junior high basketball team chalked up an impressive record this year, winning twelve contests against only four defeats. These future basketball leaders were coached by Mr. Henkle. In the league junior high basketball tournament which was played in Bryan, the Bullpups defeated Liberty Center in the first round but were overcome by the Bryan cagers. At the close of the season Doug Parker was elected honorary captain.
